

Center City: What We Want To Be

Thinking Boldly About the Future

City of Seattle
Greg Nickels, Mayor

Department of Planning and Development
Diane Sugimura, Director

Seattle Department of Transportation
Grace Crunican, Director

For more information, call John Rahaim at
(206) 684-0434
or send e-mail to john.rahaim@seattle.gov

Mayor Greg Nickels

invites you to hear

Gordon Price

Former Vancouver City Councilor; now Adjunct Professor, University of British Columbia School of Community and Regional Planning

Speak on the community values and public vision that have driven transportation and land use success in Vancouver, BC

Also ...

Diane Sugimura: Development Strategies

Grace Crunican: Transportation Strategies

Monday, November 10, 2003

5:30–7:30 p.m.

Seattle City Hall, Bertha Landes Reception Room

600 4th Avenue, 1st Floor

(please enter from 5th Avenue)

Gordon Price served six terms on the Vancouver City Council, from 1986 to 2003. He also served on the Board of the Greater Vancouver Regional District and was appointed to the first board of the Greater Vancouver Transportation Authority (TransLink). Mr. Price is a regular lecturer on transportation and land use and has published extensive essays on Vancouver and transportation issues. Mr. Price sits on the Board of Northwest Environment Watch and the International Center for Sustainable Cities.

Diane Sugimura is director of the Seattle Department of Planning and Development (formerly DCLU), which develops, administers, and enforces standards for land use, design, construction, and housing within the city limits and is responsible for long-range planning in Seattle. The Department has launched an update of Seattle's Comprehensive Plan that will be completed in 2004.

Grace Crunican is director of the Seattle Department of Transportation, which is working to create and maintain a safe and reliable transportation system that enhances neighborhoods, the environment, and the economy. The Department is engaged in a study of circulation in and around downtown Seattle.